Seeing Hearing Tasting

Seeing Hearing Tasting is a series based in our café to give a behind-the-scenes peak into the mouth-watering world of our resident food and drink experts.

Coffee cupping

First Saturday of each month
11am drop-in (Free entry)

Join our house barista Aaron Carter and special guest speakers to sample beans from around the world, learn about the roasting process and discover the rich variety of tastes and aromas in a speciality cup of coffee.

Garden-to-plate masterclass

Second Saturday of each month.
11:30am–3pm (£20* per ticket, max 10)

Meet our inspirational young chef Oakan Brousse who will guide you through the preparation of a delicious light lunch and pastry inspired by foraged herbs and flowers from our gardens. *plus booking fee

Concrete farmer's market

Last Saturday of each month
10am–3pm (free entry)

Browse a sumptuous array of produce as we open our doors to local suppliers. Expect delicious cheeses, chutneys, fresh vegetables and more whilst learning about the products from the source.
